The steamer Mount Vernon has arrived here from Vera Cruz, with dates from that port to November 27 and from the capital of Mexico to November 20. She has been obliged to go into dock here to have her screw repaired.

The Mexican Congress had met on the afternoon of November 20 according to the decree issued to that effect. Of the two hundred and eight members a quorum was present-namely, one hundred and five representatives.

A rumor had mysteriously gained circulation to the effect that a special messenger had arrived bearing a communication from the Emperor Napoleon to President Juarez.

Minister Romero, with Messrs. Babcock, Sturm, Estvan, Donnet and others, had arrived at the capital by the train from Apizace, and had taken apartments at the Iturbide Hotel. President Juares, accompanied by his wife and Minister Plumb, had repaired to the railroad station to receive Minister Romero. On the way from Apizaco the train met with an accident which damaged the engine somewhat; but, fortunately, none of the passengers were injured in the least.

There were reports of considerable enlistments having taken place to increase the ranks of the Mexican army. The destination of these troops was not known, but was variously surmised.

blacks in Bullock county, in the neighbor the blacks in Bullock county, in the neighborhood of Perote, The colored loyal leaguers organized and resisted processes of the civil authorities. Under instructions from colored emissaries, they formed a code of laws, opened a court, officered and organized it, arrested by night all blacks who opposed their unlawful proceedings, and carried their punishment so far that their victims applied to the civil authorisise for pretection. The black Sheriff and his deputy were finally arrested, but other insurrectionary leaders organized ageroes and threatening a general rising, the extermination of whites and the taking possession of the country. Black leaders went to plantations and forced laborers to join them for vengeance, abowing pretended orders resisting their authority. During the excitement the negro church at Perote was burned by unknown parties, alleged by black longuers to inflame the negroes. The whites universally regret it. The white citizens organ-

General Swayne was appealed to and sent a detach-ment of troops promptly to the scene of troubles to re-store order. Fifteen black insurrectionists have been arrested and lodged in jall to be tried by civil authority. At last accounts order was restored and all was quiet.

Phe Commercial Bank—The Proposed Changes in the Tariff—Proposed Overland Communi-cation with British Columbia. OTTAWA, Dec. 4, 1867.

OTTAWA, Dec. 4, 1867.

The bill to amend the act incorporating the Commercial Bank has passed through the Committee of the Whole in the House of Commens. By evidence given before the committee the bank was shown to be perfectly solvent, and it is probable will resume business by amakamating with the Merchants' Bank of Montreal.

A delegation of Montreal merchants have arrived here to look after their interests in connection with the proposed changes in the tariff. It is understood that the excise duty on spirits will not be altered. A slight reduction will be made in the duties on tea, sugar, molaness and coffee. Kanefactured goods, such as cotten and other fabrics, will not be subject to any change.

Mr. Waddington, a resident of Vancouver's Island, is here to promote the scheme of opening up communication overland with British Columbia. It is proposed to open a line of land and water carriage from the best of Lake Superior to the Pacific Cosan. This, it is shown, can be accomplished at a moderate expenditure. Mr. Waddington is seeking encouragement from the Canadian government prior to his departure for England, where he hopes the scheme will be favorably received.

Some few days ago the entrance of Mr. Kreugel, No.

179 Canal street, had been entered and robbed of a lot of misselfaneous articles, but no clue could be found at the time that would lead to the discovery? of the perpetrators of the affair. Yesterday Captain Gairmand, of the Fouriseenth precinct, received information to the effect that Michael Cunningham, who kept a grobory store at 187 Mulberry street, and in his possession some property which did not belong to him. The captain detailed officers Muligan and Notelot to ascornian the truth of the information, and a search was instituted, which resulted in the discovery of a large number of miscellaneous articles, such as watches, watch cases, after forks and spoons, table knives, bed clothing, blankets, male and female wearing appears, table and horse covers, ince and ornaments. Cunningham could not satisfactorily account for his possession of all these goods, and he was arrested and locked up. Sufficient was learned, hewever, to show that portions of the propertyfbelonged to Mr. Kruugsi, of Canal streets, and that Henry MoCarty, of No. 18 Chrystie street, and James Colbert, of No. 24 Mource street, knew something about the affair. These young gentlemen were accordingly locked up, found and locked up on the charge of having burglariously entered the residence of Mr. Kreugel.
